About MHRFDC

Mahatma Hansraj Faculty Development Centre set up under Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching emphasizes the need to change the role and working of a teacher from mere disseminator of information and knowledge to the one who advances frontiers of existing knowledge by actively developing and creating new insights into diverse social and physical phenomenon.

About the Host Institution

Hansraj College is one of the largest constituent colleges of University of Delhi. The college was established on July 26, 1948 in the memory of Mahatma Hansraj. An accredited and one of the top ranking institutes, Hansraj college educates more than 5000 students from all over the world in graduate and under graduate courses in Sciences, Arts, and Commerce. A faculty of about 200 leading scholars has been appointed from across the country to closely mentor the students at Bachelors, Masters and Doctoral levels. The faculty is also engaged in research in various domains. Hans Raj College seeks to emerge as an institution engaged in cutting edge research and provides opportunities to students and faculty through innovative projects, researches, publications, conferences, workshops and procurement of resources. These initiatives are facilitated through research grants by UGC, DST, SERB, DBT, NMPB, DRDO and other agencies. The college is actively involved in various research collaborations with University of Loyola Chicago, University of California San Diego USA, University of Debrecen Hungary, and BIOCEV - Charles University Prague.
