Two Week FDP on Research Gaps in Economics: Issues and Data sets

Organized by Department of Economics
(22nd April 2019 - 4th May 2019)

About PMMMNMTT

The Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching emphasizes the need to change the role and working of a teacher from mere disseminator of information and knowledge to the one who advances frontiers of existing knowledge by actively developing and creating new insights into diverse, social and physical phenomenon.

About the Host Institution

Hansraj College, a constituent college of University of Delhi, has been striving since 1948 to provide holistic education that can serve as a catalyst for dismantling ignorance and illiteracy. Hansraj College has recently been graded by NAAC Grade A+ with CGPA 3.62. In addition to education, the college has established a strong research environment. Hansraj College has accumulated grants from various agencies like UGC, DST, SERB, DBT, DRDO and NMPB and around twenty sponsored research projects have been funded. The college has successfully completed 24 innovation projects funded by the Research Council, University of Delhi. The college has also received a special grant from DBT under the Star College Scheme since 2013.

Objectives of the programme

The broad aim of the program is to guide college teachers who are looking to enroll in a PhD programme in the near future, and are actively trying to identify and position their research interests. A comprehensive exposure to the various research gaps that exist in the discipline, and information about the existing and potential data sources and methodologies, is a must for those aspiring to pursue research. Some of the broad areas for the above mentioned purpose are Industry, Agriculture, International Trade, Gender, Discrimination, Behavioral and Experimental Economics, Public Finance etc.
